Extract from Chief Secy's note on quest relating to the Yelandur Jahagirs

Re the Contribution by the Yelandur Jahagirs towards the expenditure in connection with the lockups. The D.G. of Prisons in his [illegible] enquired the authority on which the prisoners of the Jahagirs are maintained at the cost of the State in the Mysore Jail was in Prisons file (76-09). The D.G. of Prisons has informed that as the Criminal Jurisdiction has not been ceded to the Jahagirs the existing practice re the maintenance of prisoners is normal State officers requiring sanction. It is not known whether the Criminal Jurisdiction has been ceded to the Jahagirs.

1) As there is only a Magisterial lockup in Yelandur and as the Criminal Jurisdiction does not appear to have been ceded to the Jaghirdar it is a point for consideration whether he can be asked to contribute towards the maintenance of the lockup
